THE BUCCANEERS.

By Hal E. Roach. ✓

Our Gang a number of mischievous kids determine to become pirates, and each one wears a diversified pirate outfit. They seize a peaceful craft and start to roam the high seas when the peculiar antics of the craft attract the attention of a nearby man-o'-war man and the captain sending a boat crew to investigate, brings the mischievous youngsters to the battleship. Here a burlesque - the third degree - is worked upon them with the result that their desires for mischief are quelled at least for the time being.
